

Anastasija – Something More / If I Were An Angel

Verse 1:

Sometimes the world needs a hero
If only to keep the peace
A bright light in the dead of night
To give us hope, though short and sweet

Prechorus:

We could've been anything
Anything at all
It's hard to imagine the rise when you're
Witnessing the fall

Chorus 1:

If I were an angel
I would've helped you fly
The final effort, the final act
But we live in a world of lies
So why does the truth hit so hard?
I feel the pain, I'm seeing stars, but
I may be weak now
But I'll be something more
I'll be something more

Verse 2:

We all know
It's hard to fit in
So worried about the little things
Yet we've all got our own lives to live

Prechorus:

We could've been anything
Anything at all
It's hard to imagine the rise when you're
Witnessing the fall

Chorus 2:

If I were an angel
I would've helped you fly

The final effort, the final act
But we live in a world of lies
So why does the truth hit so hard?
I feel the pain, I'm seeing stars, but
I may be weak now
But I'll be something more
I'll be something more

Bridge:

And the world has gone rogue
They couldn't hear our song
The winners take it all, yeah
We'll stand our ground
Till the bitter end
And if you fall, I'll pull you up again

Chorus 3:

If I were an angel
I would've helped you fly
The final effort, the final act
But we live in a world of lies
So why does the truth hit so hard?
I feel the pain, I'm seeing stars, but
I may be weak now
But I'll be something more (if I were an angel)
I'll be something more (I would've helped you fly)

Why does the truth hit so hard?
I feel the pain, I'm seeing stars, but
I may be weak now
But I'll be something more
I'll be something more
I'll be something more
